"Do Good on Earth"

The above theme for World Mission Sunday sums up the dedication of missionaries around the world. They reach out every day in the name of Christ to communities, families, and children in desperate need.

This year collection will focus on the work of Sister Clara and the Salesian Sisters at Marialaya Children's Home in India. These Sisters help to rescue young girls from the sad reality of child trafficking and child labor that plagues so many mission countries. Every single day, all over India, hundreds of young girls are taken from their homes and families forced into child labor, to be beggars on the street, or sold to be domestics.

✠ Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time ✠

"Will not God secure the rights of His chosen ones who call out to Him day and night?" The Lord loves in us the kind of persistence that characterizes the widow who "keeps bothering" the judge until he delivers a just decision. Such persistence testifies to a promise that we have been given. "Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed": namely, to the promise God has planted in you. "Be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient." Moses witness to this: as long as he remains with his arms in the form of a cross, the promises of God come true.
