Marriage Moments by Susan Vogt

What is the most romantic trip you can take? Perhaps it's a trip down memory lane: how you met, your first date, your first kiss, your proposal and acceptance, your first night as Mister & Mrs. Reminisce together today.

Simeon and The Presentation

So even though the arms of Simeon seemed to be presenting the Son, the words of Simeon testified that it was he who was being presented by the Son. Therefore, there can be no question for us about what happened; what was said puts an end to the questioning: "Now, therefore, you dismiss your servant in peace." Whoever is dismissed in peace to go to God is presented to God as an offering; and to make it known by whom he was being presented, he said: "For my eyes have seen your compassion." Now, if goodness had not been at work in him, why would he be giving thanks? He was quite properly giving thanks because he had been found worthy to receive into his arms the ONE whom angels and prophets had eagerly longed to see.

There was no possibility of our Lord becoming lost; those who had been lost were found by Him! So the servant, who had been very careful not to become lost, was presented by the Son, who could not be lost. It is clear Simeon carried compassion in the baby he carried. He invisibly received peace from the child he visibly held in his arms. That child was glorious even when a feeble, little man carried Him, and the one who carried Him became exalted by Him.

~ St. Ephrem the Syrian
